d. The word "therefore" indicates that verses 10-11 are a logical _____ and _____ to what has previously been written.

5. Peter's intense _____ for your ongoing spiritual _____ in time! (1:10a)

d. The urgency and intensity of this exhortation is underscored by the words... " _____
_____..."

e. The command of this exhortation is for you to " _____ " in your Christian walk with Christ!

f. The objective of all this is to make your "calling and election _____".

- Who does this not refer to?

- What does this mean?

6. There is the incentive of earning a _____ for ongoing spiritual growth in your life (1:10b-11)

- How can we apply this to you?
- c. In time, your on-going life of faith and spiritual growth (“if you _____ these things”) (vs 5-8, 10a) means you will never _____!
- Can a believer ever fall or stumble out of their salvation/justification?
- What then can a believer fall from or into?
- d. In eternity, your on-going walk of faith & spiritual growth will result in a _____ at the Judgment Seat of _____!
- Where does this fit dispensationally?
- What phrase in this verse indicates this?
- Where else is this taught in the N.T.?
- Whose kingdom is it?
- How does all this apply to you?
