 - What will this require?
3. If they do not continue in unbelief toward their Messiah, God will _____ them _____ into His olive tree of blessing again (11:22-24)
4. This speaks of the _____ of what has happened to Israel in this present dispensation: It tells us that Israel's spiritual _____ is only _____, for scripture states one day, "all Israel will be _____!" (11: 25-27)
 - * When will this happen?
 - * Why was Paul so certain of this? (Is 59:20-21)
 - * Who will provide this salvation/restoration?
 - Where is redemption found?
 - * What will the Deliverer do for them? (vs 26)

* What will be the basis of all this? (11:27)

5. The result of Israel's fall is 2-fold: (11:28)

a. Concerning the "gospel"... they are _____ for your sake

b. But concerning "election"... they are _____ for the sake of the _____.

• How is this demonstrated & stated in Romans 11? (11:29)

* Another evidence -- 11:27-29—is because God is _____ and _____ to His promises which means that Israel will be saved _____ & _____ in the future by Christ.

6. What should be our perspective in all this concerning God's mercy? (11:30-32)

a. toward the Gentiles who are presently grafted in? (vs 30)

b. toward Israel, the natural branches? (vs 31)

c. toward all the world? (vs 32)

7. Paul's _____ for God's sovereign PLAN of the AGES (11:33-36)

a. It is an _____ plan in that it was deep, rich, wise, knowledgeable! ! (11:33)

b. It is an _____ plan in that God does what He wants how He wants it done (11:34)

c. It is a _____ plan (11:36) in that...

1) it is all ___ Him ... as He is the _____ of it

2) it is _____ Him...as He is the _____ of it

3) it is ___ Him.... as He is the Alpha & Omega—the beginning and the _____ of all things.

4) it is all for His _____!
