

What Kind of Testimony Are You?

(Ephesians 2:1-7)

I. Remember your past before coming to Christ as well as recognize your new life and new position now in Christ, because of His great love for us so that we may be a testimony of God's exceeding riches of His grace.

A. Your past reality of your salvation. (Eph 2:1-3)

1. The object of this section is _____... "And you He made alive..."
2. The stated fact is you that you were _____."And you He made alive, who were dead..."

dead (nekros) –

3. What is this referring to?
4. What was the cause of this?
5. What were you like before salvation?
 - a. You walked according to _____rule.
 - b. We all operated under the _____of our _____.
 - c. We all were identified as children of _____.

B. The present reality of your salvation. (Eph 2:4-6)

1. The source of our salvation is _____.
2. How is He described?

Mercy means –

3. Where does His mercy stem from?

4. Who are the recipients?

5. When was this mercy given?

6. What did He do?

a. He made us _____ together with Christ.

b. He _____ us up together with Christ.

c. He made us _____ together with Christ.

7. Three facts of your salvation.

a. It is a _____ reality.

b. We see that your new position is based upon the wonderful _____ of God, not yourself..

c. The result is your new _____ in Christ.

C. The future reality of your salvation. (Eph 2:7)

1. Your salvation has a _____.

a. God's purpose is yet _____!

b. God's purpose is to _____ His exceeding riches of His grace.

c. God's riches and kindness are given to us because of _____
_____.

What does this all mean to you?