

THE TRIUMPHS, TRANSGRESSION & TROUBLES OF DAVID
(2 Samuel)

- Book Chart of 2 Samuel

II. David's Move to Hebron (1:1-4:12)

C. David Learns of Saul & Jonathan's Death (chp 1)

8. When David's base camp at Ziklag had been raided by the Amalekites (1 Sam. 30) & their wives, children, & material goods were _____, God in His grace allowed David & his men to pursue & _____.

1 Samuel 30:1-8; 17-31

9. For the first time, David hears the outcome of the battle: Israel has suffered a _____, & both Saul & Jonathan are now _____! (1:2-4)

- Why does this young man tell a different story from 1 Samuel 31?

10. This young man, whether an Amalekite, or a deserting Jew saying he was an Amalekite, did not _____ David, nor how he _____ toward Saul as "the Lord's anointed"!

11. David had always had _____ for Saul & his role as king of Israel! (1 Samuel 24:1-12; 26:1-12)

- Thinking through some of the things that have come to David's attention:

- I sense this young man was possibly _____ the bodies of dead soldiers when he came across the dead or nearly dying person of Saul & _____ to put himself in _____ with the future king of Israel, even though David was not yet king!

12. David's response to the news of the young man was one of _____ & _____ concerning Israel's defeat & the death of Saul & Jonathan, not one of joy or gladness!
13. His own _____, whether true or false, concerning the death of Saul, _____ his own _____ !(1:14-16)
14. It is ironic that Saul _____ his kingdom because he failed to _____ the Amalekites that God sent him to annihilate in 1 Samuel 15, and now this young man who claimed to be an Amalekite _____ because he claimed to have _____ Saul!

D. David's Eulogy in Words (1:17-24)

- What is "The Book of Jasher"? (Joshua 10:13; 1 Chronicles 29:29 note)
5. "The Song of the Bow" is in reality words of a _____ or _____ toward Israel, Saul, & Jonathan!
6. David's eulogy begins by focusing upon _____ and ends with the focus on _____.
7. David's eulogy appears to be an expression of the _____ between himself and Jonathan
8. By his eulogy, David is _____ Jonathan and his descendants as he _____ him as a hero, whose memory is to be remembered & _____.
- What is it we can learn from 2 Samuel 1?